A Note from Erin

In the Letter From the Birmingham Jail Dr.
Martin Luther King, Jr. wrote: “Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.” Justice which is the practice of creating the common good is our worship theme for the month. Here are some questions I’m thinking about as I prep for the month ahead, perhaps they resonate with you:

What is your experience of justice in your life?
What does the common good look or feel like?
How do you contribute to the work of justice and the common good?
What inspires you to work for justice?
How have you witnessed others around you create the common good?

Peace,
Erin

WISDOM OF THE POETS

And now let us welcome the new year full of things that have never been

Rainer Maria Rilka (1875-1926)
Austrian Poet and Novelist

The new year has started for moving and growing
The child's laugh within and through the adult tears,
Enjoy and incomprehension at the singing years
Pushes us into fresh life, new knowing.

Move into the year and the new time's turning
Open and vulnerable and loving and steady

Madeleine L'Engle (1929-2018)
American Author and Poet

On The Path
Four Wednesdays, Jan. 4 – 25, 7:00 p.m., Zoom
Susan Trausch, John Stobierski
What religious traditions shaped your beliefs as a child? What shapes them today? What wisdom did you keep from long-ago teachings? What did you discard? What answers are you seeking as you age? We'll start our conversations with readings from Richard Rohr’s Falling Upward — Spirituality for the Two Halves of Life. Participants may also explore National Public Radio’s archived “This I Believe” series, in which people, famous and unknown, spoke their spiritual truth. We hope this inspires participants to write their own “This I Believe” statements and, if they wish, to share them in our final class. For information, contact Susan or John.

Old Ship Church Labyrinth Meditation Walk
Sunday,
January 22nd 5:00 pm

Gratitude for the Labyrinth
1999-2023
Old Ship Church extends an invitation to all who want to express gratitude for the experience of the labyrinth for almost a quarter of a century, to attend the last labyrinth walk as a Sound Meditation to be led by wholistic health practitioner and artist, Santjes Oomen and her husband, Peter Lochtefeld, artisan, along with their circle of musicians on Sunday, January 22, 2023 at 5pm at the Old Ship Parish House, 107 Main Street, Hingham. Old Ship Church has just entered a Purchase and Sale Agreement thereby no longer having access to the labyrinth.

There are many individuals to thank for the existence and giving life to the labyrinth. Foremost is Mary Niles, now deceased, whose vision was translated into a $100,000 millennial gift to Old Ship Church and its wider community for its installation in Fellowship Hall. Others include Labyrinth Committee members over the decades, Ding Wilding Smith, Janice McPhillips, Karen Churchill, Jennifer Burtner, Joan Drescher, Lee Rumsey, Mary Thomas. Bernie Gregoire, who personally supervised the dangerous removal of the vinyl floor tiles requiring 24 hr. ventilation, during the hot humid days of August, 1999, as well as hosting the labyrinth walks for over 10 years before his death, he was irreplaceable. Elizabeth Torrey’s vision of a Labyrinth Dance Choir was realized with weekly sessions over many years by Nikki Hu, choreographer, dancer and teacher, along with original music by Guy Van Duser, composer, teacher and widely known performing guitarist.

Past events such as the Peace Labyrinth after 9/11, incanting prayers of world religions, walking while reciting the poetry of Rumi, Elizabeth Torrey’s Solstice Poetry readings combined with the labyrinth walks, cello accompaniment by Jesse Flaherty, and drumming with Dawna Hammers - all were offered so generously through the years. Ever ready and steadfast have been administrative assistants, Peggy Ketcham, Julianna Dunn and Lisa Beck. Sextons, Mark and Crissi Curran has been unconditional in their superb preparations for the labyrinth walks over more than two decades.

Deep thanks are due to photographers Michael Weymouth, Trish and Jennifer Burtner for their sensitive portrayals of the Old Ship Labyrinth. They were able to capture the labyrinth’s beauty through floor angles and in candlelight, giving unhurried time and attention as volunteers.

We hold these treasures of the past, as ever present rich resources of memory, with deep gratitude.

Mary Thomas, Facilitator

Discussion Wed Jan 25th 7pm on Zoom

Topic - Where Does Your Hope and Strength Come From?

It's a New Year, let's come together to share where we find hope for LGBTQ+ community. Is it in church, friends, LGBTQ+ organizations or groups, websites, etc. Sharing where your hope comes from is like giving a gift to someone. Bring your gifts to share so they may strengthen our bonds with one another. Strength and hope will guide us through those moments of disrespect, etc.

Days of Importance -
No Name Calling Week Jan 16-20, 2023

No Name-Calling Week is observed during the third week of January to educate students, teachers, and the public on the harms of name-calling. This year, it takes place from January 16 to 20. People have been called unpleasant names for their weight, height, intelligence, sexual orientation, and other things they have little or no control over. While some consider name-calling harmless fun, victims of such names generally feel insecure, ashamed, and bullied, to extents that cause them to lose their self-esteem, feel unwanted in their immediate environments, and suffer emotional distress. Name-calling inflicts psychological injuries on victims and forces some of them into seclusion or to consider suicide.

Update on the November 19th Memorial Coffeehouse for Jim Watson, Sherman Whipple, Carol Schuler, Jim Richmond, and Joan Cellini: Many thanks to all those who attended the Memorial Coffeehouse for the long time volunteers who passed away during the past few months. Jim Watson coordinated the coffeehouse with enthusiasm for many years, Sherman designed posters, helped get the word out to the community, and often performed during the open mic time. Carol baked and then served refreshments during intermission, Joan greeted coffeehouse fans at the door and handled ticket sales. Jim Richmond helped out with the coffeehouse set-up. Thanks also to our musicians who volunteered to perform as a way to honor these volunteers. Southern Rail, one of the Coffeehouse's regular performers for almost 15 years headlined the show. Other performers included Bob Hawes & Jeff O'Neil, Marc Meyer, Duncan McLoire, and Eric Cornetta, as well as Marty Blumberg, Bob Uvello, and Dave Jackson. It was a festive evening full of good music and many remembrances of these fine people. We raised $1011, which will be donated to the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee in memory of these volunteers. Additional thanks to Marc Meyer and John Leonard for organizing this wonderful tribute!

Invitation to Worship Tech Team

As you know, Colin McGinnis has been our solo “tech team” for Sunday worship for the past two years, managing the cameras and computer connections. We would like to support Colin with a bit more of a team! If you are interested in helping out during the upcoming worship year, please contact Lisa

Children & Youth Religious Education

January 1st No Class.

While attendance has been light this year, the RE Committee is committed to providing a meaningful experience for all who come. This fall we are focusing on being outside together, exploring nature through our UU faith lens.

It's an exciting time to be part of RE at Old Ship and we need YOU...your time...your thoughts....your commitment to creating a joyful, spiritual space in our congregation for our children to feel connected to one another and Unitarian Universalism. We are looking for volunteers to be on the committee and/or to be available on Sunday mornings. Please reach out to anyone on the committee if you are interested in taking part in laying the foundation for a meaningful and engaging multi-age community for our children and youth.

In January we will be focusing on:
● re-reviewing the Interim DRE reports from the last 2 years and are discussing the best way to distribute this information to everyone.
● updating our Safe Congregation policies and practices
● continuing our commitment to providing 80 lunches to Father Bill's monthly
● the possibility of a Youth Advisor
● RE's part in the Interim Ministry work we are doing as an entire congregation

If you have any questions or would like to help with RE, please feel free to reach out to any of us. We love to talk about this wonderful part of our ministry at Old Ship.

January's Special Plate Collection is for Renewal House—Old Ship has supported Renewal House, one of the programs of the UU Urban Ministry for many years. As a reminder, here is the description of Renewal House from the UUUM website:

Renewal House is a domestic violence shelter for individuals and families who are fleeing violence or abuse. Since 1980, Renewal House has provided temporary emergency shelter and advocacy services to more than 1,000 individuals and families escaping domestic violence. Renewal House was one of the first domestic violence shelters in the state to provide shelter for male survivors as well as female, and is sought out by other agencies for its expertise in attending to the spiritual needs of survivors. Renewal House works closely with other programs that serve the LGBTQ communities, as well as those that serve elders and individuals with disabilities to provide the best support we can to these underserved populations.

This is important work, and it deepens our connection to the UU Urban Ministry and its programs. You may make your donation online through the Old Ship website by designating your donation to Renewal House or by sending your check to the church office, payable to Old Ship, with Renewal House designated on the memo line. We will indicate in the weekly email from the office the specific Sunday when the plate during the service will be donated to Renewal House. Thank you in advance for your donations.

Thanks to all who contributed to our October special plate in support of the UU the Vote program. We donated $1725.45 to this important program in support

Lajimodiere’s Stringing Rosaries: The History, the Unforgivable, and the Healing of Northern Plains American Indian Boarding School Survivors. This book is based on interviews with 16 survivors of U.S. government boarding schools for indigenous children. These schools were designed to destroy native cultures and assimilate the children into the broader white culture. Davalene Cooper will lead our discussion. For more information or if you have questions about the group, contact Davalene Cooper. This group is open to all who are interested in learning more about these social justice issues. It is a drop-in group so members may attend whatever book discussions they are most interested in. Thanks for Supporting Friends of the Homeless of the South Shore (FHSS):  Thanks to everyone who participated in our two major projects supporting the FHSS: the Holiday Gift Program and the Annual Holiday Dinner. Both were incredibly successful. We delivered over 126 gifts to FHSS for distribution to the 9 families we adopted. This was the first time since Covid that FHSS has been able to have the dinner. Special thanks to Fresh Market in the Hingham Shipyard for donating the ham for the dinner and to Brenda Black for organizing the food. Thanks also to our many volunteers who helped prepare and serve the food and then to clean up the kitchen and Fellowship Hall, including Asher Baynes, Bonnie Bayes, Liz Bienfang, Davalene Cooper, Abby and Mary Diamond-Kissaday, Kate Doyle, Diane Jordan, Trish McAleer, Karen Plaskon, Ron Pollara, Jean Railton, Lisa Sawyer, Gail Moran Slater, Patti Smith, and Carol Valentine. Task Force on Widening the Circle of Concern

In 2017, the Unitarian Universalist Association Board of Trustees established a Commission on Institutional Change. The commission was charged with conducting an audit of white privilege and the structure of power within Unitarian Universalism, and with analyzing structural racism and white supremacy culture within the UUA.

In 2020, the commission published Widening the Circle of Concern, a report of its findings and recommendations about racism and white supremacy culture within Unitarian Universalism. Beginning on February 1, Ralph Brown and Davalene Cooper will be leading a three week class to explore this report, and how we can make its findings visible in the Old Ship community. More information will be in the February newsletter
