to help ensure the safety and health of Launch clients and staff. Please remember that the Fellowship Hall is exclusively for the use of community-based setting. Launch is a source of very helpful income for us, Masks Still Available!

reach out to https://oldshipchurch.breezechms.com/ that appears in the printed directory. If that is the case, you are able to upload send an email to Sharon Prehn, chair of the Old Ship Membership Breeze. new printed directory will not have to do anything to have their photos added to this work, we are able to embody our faith and values. always, is supporting communities whose access to aid is most limited. Please continue our work to dismantle white supremacy and create a more beloved year: April 11, at 7 p.m. Toni Morrison, 7 p.m. via Zoom, to discuss David Grann, at the residents at the Father Bill's Shelter in Quincy.  Currently our six teams are "Serve Others" throughout this pandemic year by providing nutritious meals for shore. This program is often staffed by high school students who are involved church office, payable to Old Ship, with Holly Hill Farm designated on the News from the Social Justice Council

Contact

Song/poem circle will be gathering on Zoom Tuesday evening, March 2, at 7:00

email

Bodhisattva Study Group

I will share one more poem with you, this time set to music. The text of On This Shining Night

I will share one more poem with you, this time set to music. The text of

and the Teachings of Plants

Work of Making Outer Change." She Executive Director and Senior Minister at the Sunday, March 7

Worship in March

Are there lessons for all of us – and not only in

Stalks flowering. Well, it was like a dream. Squeezed out of clay, soft flowers, limp

from the minister's desk

Palm Sunday falls at the beginning of Passover this year; so the words and

and the Teachings of Plants

Work of Making Outer Change." She Executive Director and Senior Minister at the Sunday, March 7

Worship in March

Are there lessons for all of us – and not only in

Stalks flowering. Well, it was like a dream. Squeezed out of clay, soft flowers, limp

from the minister's desk

Palm Sunday falls at the beginning of Passover this year; so the words and