Welcome our Interim DRE!

We are delighted to be welcoming Chloë Briedé as our Interim Director of Religious Education, beginning on August 1. Chloë brings a broad and long experience in faith education, having studied religious education at the Pacific School of Religion and has just completed her ministerial internship at First Parish in Berkeley, California, after which she was appointed by the American Board of Religious Education to be the National Director of Religious Education. Chloë has worked as a religious educator at small and large UU congregations across the country, including a term as the Director of Religious Education at First Parish in Quincy, Massachusetts. She is a frequent speaker at UU professional development conferences, writes for Journal of Religious Education, and is the author of the UU curriculum for children. She will be working with her own and Beulah’s student interns to lead the religious education program at Old Ship. Chloë can be reached at chloebriede@gmail.com.

Welcome our Interim DRE!